I don't recall =ceiving an answer (could be lost in my e-mails) to my question about sell pricing. Are we willing to take canner prices for our =orses? Is that all they are worth? No blood lines? No high potential for =ore than dog food?

I am supportive of =educing the ramuda.

Dan,

Have you been able to =etermine if we can move forward with this process of culling the horse herd at =BRSP?

Thanks,

d
